

FIRST LATINOAMERICAN WORKSHOP IN LAW AND ECONOMICS

SANTIAGO, CHILE

Hotel Atton El Bosque, Roger del Flor 2770, Las Condes

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 20th

08:30 - 9:00 Coffee

09:00 - 9:15 Welcome: Roberto Guerrero, Law School Dean, Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile

09:15 - 12:45 FIRST SESSION: LAW AND CRIME

Chair: Daniel Mejía

Daniel Mejía, Professor of Economics, Universidad de los Andes, Colombia

“Scarcity without leviatan: The Violent Effects of Cocaine Supply Shortages in the Mexican War Drug”

Emily Owens, Professor of Criminology (Economics), University of Pennsylvania

“Learning the Ropes: Task Specific Experience and the Output of Idaho State Troopers”

Coffee break (15 minutes)

Norberto Hernández/Angela Zorro, Professor of Law, Universidad de Los Andes, Colombia/Economist and Lawyer, L.L.M. candidate, Yale University

“Preventive Detention: An Economic Analysis”

Mauricio Bugarin/Tomas Bugarin, Professor of Economics, University of Brasilia, Brazil/Researcher Economics and Politics) at University of Brasilia, Brazil

“An applied mechanism design and legal analysis of a bill that rewards citizens for denouncing corruption in Brazil”

13:00 – 14:30 Lunch (Hotel Atton El Bosque)

14:45 – 18:15 SECOND SESSION: COURTS AND LITIGATION

Chair: Álvaro Bustos

Joyce Sadka/Jorge Luis Silva, Professor of Economics and Law, ITAM/World bank

“Improving courts” initial decisions: An experiment in a Mexican Labor Court”

Bentley MacLeod/Elliott Ash, Professor of Economics, Columbia University/JD-PhD candidate Columbia University

“Incentives in Public Service: Theory and Evidence from State Supreme Courts”

Coffee break (15 minutes)

Álvaro Bustos, Professor of Business, Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile
"Uniformity in Judicial Decisions: The Case of Wrongful Terminations in Chile"

Diego Pardow, Faculty of the Law School, Universidad de Chile
"The Chilean Constitutional Court and the 2005 Reform"

20:00 - 22:00 Dinner (Hotel Singular. Merced 294, Santiago. There will be a Shuttle departing from Atton at 19:30)

Introduction: José Miguel Sanchez, Dean of the Economics and Management School, PUC de Chile

Main Speaker: Law and Economics today
Emerson Tiller, Professor of Law and Business, Northwestern University

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 21st

08:30 -9:00 Coffee

09:00 - 12:30 THIRD SESSION: CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Chair: Borja Larrain

Burcin Yurtoglu, Professor of Finance, Whu-Otto Beisheim School of Management
"Family Matters: Theory and Evidence from Turkish Business Groups (1925 – 2012)"

Iván Marinovic: Professor of Business, Stanford University
"No News is Good News: Voluntary Disclosure in the Face of Litigation Risk"

Coffee break (15 minutes)

Walter Novaes: Professor of Finance, PUC de Río
"The Government as a Large Shareholder: Impact in the Voting Premium"

María Elina Cruz: Professor of Law, Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile
"Interlocking directors and Antitrust in Chile"

Borja Larrain: Professor of Finance, Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile
"Do Business Groups Change with Market Development?"

13:00 – 14:30 Lunch (Hotel Atton El Bosque)

